

SAFARI NJEMA NEWS LETTER 1st for 2008

Dear Fellow hunters and friends

The season have started and here are some of the first pictures from a safari with a very good friend and client this was Lee's 8th safari with SAFARI NJEMA As you can see this was a special hunt were we were hunting most of the small stuff. It was also different in the way that we hunted from Zululand up to the Northern Cape it was in deed a long road trip. We named the trip after a song by the Highway men "The road goes on for ever" It was also special in the way that I had my son on safari as a full on Apprentice PH. The cammo we are wearing is old tiger stripe from the Vietnam era and I must say it work extremely well. If you need to get some get it from www.usmedals.com We are looking forward to the rest of the year there is some lion, buffalo and elephant hunt's coming up will keep you up to date.

Hunting red duiker is time consuming
